Dear Brother Chesshir:

The reports of your work in Korea are highly encouraging. Your dedication to the people of Korea and to the Gospel of Christ is an inspiration to your brethren back home. The opportunity to associate with you during your visit back home was enjoyable to me.

In reply to your recent letter concerning support for Korean preachers, I must state that the Elders have decided against the request. At the present time, we are $380 overdrawn in our working account. The picture is encouraging however because we asked for a 50% increase in contributions for 1962 and so far have lacked only the overdraft amount reaching this goal. In addition to our full-time support of R. C. Walker in Radford, Va., we have had to take on the support of the preacher in Monterey, Tennessee. This coupled with our plans to build seems to necessitate a negative answer to your request.

We send you our profound best wishes, our prayers for the continued health of you and your family, and the success of your work.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
